

Education

- 2016 Ph.D. in Sociology, Purdue University
Dissertation Title: Local Matters: Regulating Economic Development in Two Indiana Cities
Committee: Rich Hogan (chair), Jon Teaford, Robert Perrucci, Larry DeBoer
- 2009 M.S. in Sociology, Purdue University
Thesis Title: A Selective Imperialist Model for the U.S. State in the Global Political Economy
Committee: Mangala Subramaniam (chair), Robert Perrucci, Rachel Einwohner

Research and Teaching Interests

Social Problems, Social Stratification, Globalization, Urban Sociology, Neoliberalism, Surveillance Capitalism, Political Sociology, Sociological Theory, Introductory Sociology

Academic Positions

- 2022- Lecturer, University of Maryland
2018-2021 Instructor, The George Washington University
2020 Instructor, Trinity Washington University

Teaching Experience (selected)

University of Maryland
SOCY 100: Introduction to Sociology
SOCY 227: Introduction to the Study of Deviance

The George Washington University
SOC 1001: Introduction to Sociology

Grants and Awards

- Purdue Research Foundation Dissertation Grant ($17,000), 2015-2016
Purdue Research Foundation, Purdue University
- Dean Knudsen Dissertation Research Award ($1,000), 2013
Department of Sociology, Purdue University
- Walter Hirsch Graduate Student Dissertation Research Award ($500), 2013
Department of Sociology, Purdue University
- Purdue Research Foundation Research Grant ($3,000), 2013
Purdue Research Foundation, Purdue University

Presentations at Professional Meetings

- Malackany, Chris. 2014. "(Re)Development in Indiana: Differences Between College and Factory Towns." North Central Sociological Association. Cincinnati, OH. April 10-13.
- Malackany, Chris. 2013. "Local Matters: Places in the Contemporary Period." 43rd Urban Affairs Association Conference. San Francisco, CA. April 3-6.

Malackany, Chris. 2009. "A Selective Imperialist Model for the U.S. State in the Global Political Economy." Annual Meetings of the Society for the Study of Social Problems. San Francisco, CA. August 7-9.

Professional Service

Cohort Representative, Sociology Graduate Organization, 2007-2010; Funding Committee Co-Chair, 2009

Student Representative, Department Teaching Committee, 2009