

Curriculum Vitae

Notarization. I have read the following and certify that this curriculum vitae is a current and accurate statement of my professional record.

Signature  Date 6/23/13

1. Personal Information

- a. UID, Last Name, First Name, Contact Information
102255740
Kestnbaum, Meyer
Department of Sociology
University of Maryland
2112 Art-Sociology Building
College Park, MD 20742
mkestn@umd.edu
(office) 301-405-6431
- b. Current Academic Appointment
Associate Professor of Sociology
University of Maryland at College Park
Appointed August 23, 2003
- c. Other Academic Appointments while at UMD
Research Associate
Center for the Study of Military Organization
University of Maryland at College Park
1995–present.
- d. Educational Background
Harvard University, Department of Sociology
Ph.D., 1997

Harvard University, Department of Sociology
MA, 1989

Harvard College, Committee on Degrees in Social Studies
AB cum laude, 1986
- e. Employment Background
Tutor
Committee on Degrees in Social Studies
Harvard University
1989-1992

2. Research, Scholarly and Creative Activities

--in all citations below, bold indicates clear first authorship

a. Books

- i. Books Authored
- ii. Books Edited
- iii. Book Chapters

Kestnbaum, Meyer. “Organized Coercion and Political Authority: Armed Conflict in a World of States.” In: The Wiley-Blackwell Companion to Sociology, ed. George Ritzer, pp. 588-608. Wiley-Blackwell Publishing, 2012.

Kestnbaum, Meyer. “Mars Revealed: The Entry of Ordinary People into War among States.” In: Remaking Modernity: Politics, Processes, and History in Sociology, eds. Julia P. Adams, Elisabeth S. Clemens, and Ann Shola Orloff, pp. 249-285. Durham, NC: Duke University Press, 2005. -Refereed.

Robinson, John P., Alan Neustadt, and Meyer Kestnbaum. “Technology and Tolerance: Public Opinion Differences Among Internet Users and Non-Users.” In: The Internet & American Life, eds. Philip Howard and Steve Jones, pp. 237-254. New York: Sage, 2004.

Kestnbaum, Meyer. “L’approvisionnement du peuple pour la guerre: une transformation historique du monde avec implications globales” (trans. “Bringing the People into War: A World-Historical Transformation with Global Implications”). In: Philosophie et globalisation, eds. Stéphane Douailler, Patrice Vermeren and Jordi Riba. Collections: Philosophie en commun, general ed. Patrice Vermeren. Paris: Editions l’Harmattan, 2002.

Robinson, John P., Meyer Kestnbaum, Alan Neustadt, and Anthony Alvarez. “The Internet and Other Uses of Time.” In: The Internet in Everyday Life, eds. Barry Wellman and Caroline Haythornthwaite, pp. 244-262. Oxford, UK and New York: Basil Blackwell, 2002.

Neustadt, Alan, John P. Robinson, and Meyer Kestnbaum. “Doing Social Science Research Online.” In: The Internet in Everyday Life, eds. Barry Wellman and Caroline Haythornthwaite, pp. 186-211. Oxford, UK and New York: Basil Blackwell, 2002.

Segal, David R. and Meyer Kestnbaum. “Professional Closure in the Military Labor Market: A Critique of Pure Cohesion.” In: The Future of the Army Profession, eds. Don M. Snider and Gayle L. Watkins, pp. 441-458. New York: McGraw-Hill, 2002.

Neustadtl, Alan and Meyer Kestnbaum. "The McDonaldization of the Internet." In: McDonaldization: The Reader, ed. George Ritzer, pp. 126-140. Thousand Oaks, CA and London: Pine Forge Press, 2002.

Robinson, John P., Meyer Kestnbaum, and Andrew Kohut. "Personal Computers, Mass Media, and Other Uses of Free Time." In: Social Dimensions of Information Technology: Issues for the New Millennium, ed. G. David Garson, pp. 212-234. Harrisburg, PA: Idea Group Publishing, 2000.

Skocpol, Theda and Meyer Kestnbaum. "Mars Unshackled: The French Revolution in World-Historical Perspective." In: The French Revolution and the Birth of Modernity, ed. Ferenc Fehér, pp. 13-29. Berkeley and Los Angeles: University of California Press, 1990.
-Refereed.

iv. Text Books

v. Other

b. Articles in Refereed Journals

Kestnbaum, Meyer. "The Sociology of War and the Military." Annual Review of Sociology 35 (2009): 235-254.

Hunter, E.L., Ryan Keltly, Meyer Kestnbaum, and David R. Segal. "Civil-Military Relations in an Era of Bioterrorism: Crime and War in the Making of Modern Civil-Military Relations." Advances in Health Care Management 4 (2004): 319-344.

-Mentored E.L Hunter

Ferrigno-Stack, Josephine, John P. Robinson, Meyer Kestnbaum, Alan Neustadtl, and Anthony Alvarez. "Internet and Society: A Summary of Research Reported at WebShop 2001." Social Science Computer Review 21 (Spring 2003): 73-117.

-Mentored Josephine Ferrigno-Stack.

Kestnbaum, Meyer. "Citizen-Soldiers, National Service and the Mass Army: The Birth of Conscription in Revolutionary Europe and North America." Comparative Social Research 20 (2002): 117-144.

Booth, Bradford, Meyer Kestnbaum, and David R. Segal. "Are Post-Cold War Militaries Postmodern?" Armed Forces and Society 27 (Spring 2001): 319-342.

Robinson, John P., Meyer Kestnbaum, Alan Neustadtl, and Anthony Alvarez. "Media Use and Social Life Among Internet Users." Social Science Computer Review 18 (Winter 2000): 490-501.

Kestnbaum, Meyer. "Citizenship and Compulsory Military Service: The Revolutionary Origins of Conscription in the United States." Armed Forces and Society 27 (Fall 2000): 7-36.

Robinson, John P. and Meyer Kestnbaum. "The Personal Computer, Culture, and Other Uses of Free Time." Social Science Computer Review 17 (Summer 1999): 209–216.

Kestnbaum, Meyer and Theda Skocpol. "War and the Development of Modern National States." Sociological Forum 8 (December 1993): 661–674.

c. Professional/Extension Publications

i. Monographs

ii. Reports

Anna Simons (principal), Meyer Kestnbaum (deputy), et al., "The Military Officer in 2030," annotated brief prepared for the Secretary of Defense (USA), Office of Net Assessment, Director Andrew W. Marshall, December 2003, 105pp.

iii. Extension Publications

iv. Other Professional Publications

d. Book Reviews, Notes, and Other Contributions

i. Book Reviews

Review of Bruce D. Porter, War and the Rise of the State: The Military Foundations of Modern Politics. New York: The Free Press, 1994. Appeared in: Contemporary Sociology 24 (July 1995): 360–361.

Review of Martin Shaw, Post-Military Society: Militarism, Demilitarization, and War at the End of the Twentieth Century. Philadelphia: Temple University Press, 1991. Appeared in: Contemporary Sociology 22 (May 1993): 401–402.

ii. Notes

iii. Manuals

iv. Other Contributions

e. Conferences and Workshops: Talks, Abstracts, and Other Contributions

i. Invited Talks

"Towards a Historical Sociology of War." Author's conference for The Making and Unmaking of Modernity: Politics and Processes in Historical Sociology, convened by Julia P. Adams, Elisabeth Clemens and Ann Shola Orloff, Northwestern University, March 30-April 1, 2001.

"Closure in the Military Labor Market: A Critique of Pure Cohesion," with David R. Segal. Author's Conference, The Army Professionalism Project, convened by Don Snider and Gayle Watkins, United States Military Academy in West Point, NY, April 2001.

"How Historical Context Informs the Study of the Internet: Communication Formats and the Case of the Optical Telegraph during the French Revolution.” First Annual Graduate WebShop, University of Maryland at College Park, June 10–23, 2001.

“The Internet, Information Technology, and Society,” with Alan Neustadt. Professional Workshop conducted at the 96th Annual Meetings of the American Sociological Association, Anaheim, CA, August 18–21, 2001.

“Research on the Internet and Other Information Technology,” with Alan Neustadt and John P. Robinson. Didactic Methodological Seminar conducted at the 97th Annual Meetings of the American Sociological Association, Chicago, IL, August 16–19, 2002.

“What’s War Got to Do with It? Comments on Blood and Debt: War and the Nation-State in Latin America by Miguel Centeno.” Author-Meets-Critics Session, 73rd Annual Meeting of the Eastern Sociological Society, Philadelphia, PA, February 27–March 2, 2003.

“The Analytic Foundations of a Sociology of War: Sociological Institutionalisms, Historical Inquiry, and their Implications for Understanding the Future Military.” Presented at the Secretary of Defense (USA) 2003 Summer Study on “The Military Officer in 2030,” Office of Net Assessment, Newport, RI, July 17, 2003.

“Arms and the Man: War and Hegemonic Masculinity at the Turn of the Eighteenth Century,” with Emily S. Mann. 99th Annual Meetings of the American Sociological Association, San Francisco, CA, August 2004.

“Arms and the Man: War, Citizenship and Hegemonic Masculinity at the Turn of the Eighteenth Century,” with Emily S. Mann. Culture, the State and Social Change Conference, sponsored by the University of Pennsylvania Department of Sociology, and hosted by Randall Collins, April 1, 2005.

“How ‘the Enemy’ Came to be You and Me: The Historical Emergence of Attack on Civilians at the End of the Nineteenth Century.” Part of the Symposium “State of War: Modern American Politics and State-Building,” University of Chicago, sponsored by the Departments of History and Sociology, April 21, 2006.

“Complicating Loyalty.” Presentation at the Inter-University Seminar on Armed Forces and Society, Biennial International Conference, Chicago, IL, October 26-28, 2007.

“The Warring State.” Presidential Plenary Panel of the Social Science History Association, 36th Annual Meetings, Boston, MA, November 17, 2011.

“Making Enemies: How Civilians Became Intentional Targets in Interstate War (Again) during the Latter Nineteenth Century.” Many Hands of the State panel, 37th Annual Meetings of the Social Science History Association, Vancouver, British Columbia, Canada. November 3, 2012.

“Unexpected Adversaries: The Revolution in War at the End of the Eighteenth Century.” Many Hands of the State, 38th Annual Meetings of the Social Science History Association, Chicago, IL, November 21, 2013.

ii. Presentations

iii. Refereed Presentations

“Aristocrats and Armies: War and Rebellion in the Making of France and England.” 84th Annual Meeting of the American Sociological Association, San Francisco, CA, August 1989.

“Military Collectivism and Political Transformation: The French Revolution (1789–1815) in Comparative Perspective.” 86th Annual Meeting of the American Sociological Association, Cincinnati, OH, August 23–27, 1991.

“The Political Origins of the Modern Military: France and Prussia, 1792–1815.” Eighth International Conference of Europeanists, Chicago, IL, March 27–29, 1992.

“Revolutionary War and the Rise of National Armies.” 88th Annual Meeting of the American Sociological Association, Miami Beach, FL, August 13–17, 1993.

“Political Mobilization and the Origins of Military Conscription in France, Prussia and the United States.” 89th Annual Meeting of the American Political Science Association, Washington, DC, September 2–5, 1993.

“Partisans and Patriots: The Political Origins of National Conscription in France and the United States, 1777–1814.” 19th Annual Meeting of the Social Science History Association, Atlanta, GA, October 13–16, 1994.

“The Politics of National Conscription in Revolutionary France, 1789–1798.” 41st Annual Meeting of the Society for French Historical Studies, Atlanta, GA, March 23–25, 1995.

“Revolution and the Requis de la République: National Conscription and the Reconstruction of the French State, 1789–1815.” 92nd Annual Meeting of the American Sociological Association, Toronto, Canada, August 9–13, 1997.

“National Conscription and the Reconstruction of the Modern State in France, Germany and the United States.” 22nd Annual Meeting of the Social Science History Association, Washington, DC, October 16–19, 1997.

“As Citizens Became Soldiers: Popular Mobilization, Institutional Incorporation and the Birth of National Conscription.” 93rd Annual Meeting of the American Sociological Association, San Francisco, CA, August 21–25, 1998.

“To Rule the Land: Popular Uprisings, Partisan Networks and Administrative Penetration.” 23rd Annual Meeting of the Social Science History Association, Chicago, IL, November 19–22, 1998.

“The Internet, Time and the Rest of Life,” with John P. Robinson and Alan Neustadtl. 54th Annual Meeting of the American Association of Public Opinion Research, Miami, FL, May 17–20, 1999.

“The Social Impact of the Internet: Activity and Time Use Differences,” with John P. Robinson and Alan Neustadtl. 55th Annual Meeting of the American Association of Public Opinion Research, Portland, OR, May 18–21, 2000.

“Postmodernity and the Modern Military,” with Bradford Booth and David R. Segal. Quadrennial Research Council Meeting of the International Sociological Association, Montréal, Quebec, Canada, July 28–30, 2000.

“Mars and Tocqueville: War and Civic Voluntarism in the United States,” with Theda Skocpol, Ziad Munson and Andrew J. Karch. 96th Annual Meeting of the American Political Science Association, Washington, DC, August 30–September 3, 2000.

“Information Technology, the Internet, and Time Displacement,” with Alan Neustadtl, Anthony Alvarez, and John P. Robinson. 96th Annual Meetings of the American Sociological Association, Anaheim, CA, August 18–21, 2001.

“Professional Closure in the Military Labor Market: A Critique of Pure Cohesion,” with David R. Segal. Inter-University Seminar on Armed Forces and Society, Biennial International Conference, Baltimore, MD, October 19–21, 2001.

“Citizen-Soldiers, National Service and the Mass Army.” Inter-University Seminar on Armed Forces and Society, Biennial International Conference, Baltimore, MD, October 19–21, 2001.

“How War Became the People’s Business: Citizenship and Military Mobilization in Revolutionary Europe and North America.” Presidential Session at the 27th Annual Meeting of the Social Science History Association, St. Louis, MO, October 24–27, 2002.

“The Military Participation Ratio (MPR) Update: Mobilization of Non-Active Duty Military Personnel,” with Yuko Kurashina and David R.

Segal. 99th Annual Meetings of the American Sociological Association, San Francisco, CA, August 2004.

“How ‘the Enemy’ Came to be You and Me: Popular Involvement in Interstate War and the Emergence of Attack on Non-Combatants.” Inter-University Seminar on Armed Forces and Society, Biennial International Conference, Chicago, IL, October 21-23, 2005.

“How ‘the Enemy’ Came to be You and Me: The Historical Emergence of Attack on Civilians at the End of the Nineteenth Century.” 100th Annual Meetings of the American Sociological Association, Montreal, Quebec, Canada, August 2006.

“Republican Universalism? Intersections of Gender and Race in the Making of French Citizenship at the Turn of the Eighteenth Century,” with Emily S. Mann. 31st Annual Meetings of the Social Science History Association, Minneapolis, MN, November 2006.

“Republican Universalism? Intersections of Gender and Race in the Making of French Citizenship at the Turn of the Eighteenth Century,” with Emily S. Mann. 101st Annual Meetings of the American Sociological Association, New York, NY, August 2007.

“Citizenship and the Revolution in War: Conscription’s Gendered Logics in Western Europe and the United States, 1770–1880.” 32nd Annual Meetings of the Social Science History Association, Chicago, IL, November 15-18, 2007.

“Citizenship and the Revolution in War: Conscription’s Gendered Logics in Western Europe and the United States, 1770–1880.” 102nd Annual Meetings of the American Sociological Association, Boston, MA, August 2008.

“Nowhere to Hide: Citizenship, Racialization and Armed Opposition in the Historical Emergence of Legitimate Attack on Civilians during War,” with Carolina Martin. 33rd Annual Meetings of the Social Science History Association, Miami, FL, November 2008.

“Nowhere to Run, Nowhere to Hide: The Historical Emergence of Intentional Attack on Civilians during War,” 103rd Annual Meetings of the American Sociological Association, San Francisco, CA, August 2009.

“The Soldier in Everyman: War, Citizenship and the Remaking of Masculinity at the End of the Eighteenth Century,” 104th Annual Meetings of the American Sociological Association, Atlanta, GA, August 2010.

iv. Refereed Conference and Workshop Proceedings

Kestnbaum, Meyer. “The Development of State Power in Seventeenth Century France and England: A Framework for Analysis.” Working Paper

No. 11, Center for Research on Politics and Social Organization (CROPSO), Harvard University, 1988, 40pp

- v. Non-Refereed Conference Proceedings
- vi. Abstracts
- vii. Refereed Abstracts
- viii. Posters
- ix. Refereed Posters
- x. Panels
- xi. Refereed Panels
- xii. Others

f. Colloquia and Research Presentations

“The Political Origins of National Conscription in Comparative Perspective.”
International Security Studies “Wednesday Colloquium,” Yale University, April 24, 1995.

“Explaining the Origins of Citizen Service.” U.S. Army Research Institute for the Behavioral and Social Sciences In-Process Review of the Center for Research on Military Organization, University of Maryland, September 19, 1997.

“American Military Mobilization: Comparative Perspectives on U.S. Involvement in War, 1865–1945.” U.S. Army Research Institute for the Behavioral and Social Sciences In-Process Review of the Center for Research on Military Organization, University of Maryland, December 17, 1999.

“Arms and the Man: War and Hegemonic Masculinity at the Turn of the Eighteenth Century,” with Emily S. Mann. Comparative and Historical Sociology Workshop, Northwestern University, Department of Sociology,
October 20, 2004.

“Revolution in War: Issues in Masculinity and Treatment of ‘the Enemy’.”
Departmental Colloquium, Northwestern University, Department of Sociology,
October 21, 2004

“The State and the Revolution in War: Gendered Logics of Change in the United States and Western Europe, 1770s–1870s,” Comparative Research Workshop, Yale University, Department of Sociology, March 20, 2012.

g. Completed Creative Works

h. Sponsored Research

- i. Grants
National Science Foundation
NSF 0221100 SES: Organizational Responses to State Failure: Russian Firms and Their Attempts to Cope with a Strange New World
$7500

8/2002–7/2003

Meyer Kestnbaum, PI

Elena Vinogradova, Co-PI [Dissertation Improvement Grant, student's research]

National Science Foundation

NSF 0086143 ITR: Understanding the Social Impact of the Internet: A Multifaceted, Multidisciplinary Approach

$2,708,162

9/2000–9/2003

Meyer Kestnbaum, Co-PI

John P. Robinson, PI; Alan Neustadtl, Ben Shneiderman, Paul DiMaggio, Princeton, W. Russell Neuman, Michigan, Co-PIs

National Science Foundation

NSF 9819907 SES: The Social, Political and Cultural Impact of New Technologies: Insights from Surveys on Contemporary Patterns of Internet Use

$289,482

7/1999–7/2000

Meyer Kestnbaum, Co-PI

John P. Robinson, PI; Alan Neustadtl, Ben Shneiderman, Paul DiMaggio, Princeton, W. Russell Neuman, Michigan, Co-PIs

ii. Contracts

U.S. Army Research Institute for the Behavioral and Social Sciences, W74V8H05K0007: Social Structure, Social Systems and Social Networks

$1,083,647

11/2004-10/2008

Meyer Kestnbaum Co-PI

David R. Segal, PI; Mady Segal, Co-PI.

U.S. Army Research Institute for the Behavioral and Social Sciences
DASW 0100K0016: Social Structures Affecting Army Performance

$1,154,538

2/2000–2/2004

Meyer Kestnbaum, Associate Investigator

David R. Segal, PI; Mady Wechsler Segal, Co-PI

i. Work in Progress

i. Grant Applications

ii. Working Papers

Kestnbaum, Meyer and Emily S. Mann. "Republican Universalism? The Haitian Revolution and Intersections of Gender and Race in the Making of French Citizenship at the Turn of the Eighteenth Century"

-Emily Mann, mentored student

Kestnbaum, Meyer. “Theorizing the State at War,” essay prepared for book conference on The Many Hands of the State, edited by Ann Shola Orloff and Kimberly Morgan.

Kestnbaum, Meyer. “Unexpected Adversaries: Contingency and the Revolution in War, 1770-1870,” chapter prepared for inclusion in The Many Hands of the State, edited by Ann Shola Orloff and Kimberly Morgan.

Kestnbaum, Meyer and Carolina Martin. “Nowhere to Run, Nowhere to Hide: The Historical Re-Emergence of Intentional Attack on Civilians during War.”

-Carolina Martin, mentored student

iii. Manuscripts under Review

Kestnbaum, Meyer and Emily S. Mann. “Arms and the Man: War, Citizenship and the Remaking of Masculinity at the End of the Eighteenth Century,” ‘Revise and Resubmit’ at Social Politics.

-Emily Mann, mentored student

Kestnbaum, Meyer. “The State and the Revolution in War: Gendered Logics of Change in the United States and Western Europe, 1770s-1870s,” ‘Revise and resubmit’ at Social Science Quarterly

3. Teaching, Mentoring and Advising

a. Courses Taught

Soc 465 “The Sociology of War”

35-45 students

Fall 2008, Fall 2009, Fall 2010, Fall 2011, Spring 2013, Fall 2013

Soc 498x “Explaining Social Change: Comparative and Historical Methods”

35 students

Spring 2010, Spring 2011, Spring 2012

Soc 203, “Sociological Theory”

75 students

Spring 2013

Soc 699- “States, Politics and Social Change: Institutional Approaches to Comparative Analysis”

6-12 students

Fall 2008, Fall 2010

Soc 699- “War, the State, and Society”

5-8 students

Fall 2009, Spring 2013

Soc 699- “Comparative and Historical Methods of Analysis”

5-9 students
Spring 2009, Fall 2011

Socy 799- "Integration of Theory and Method"
7-11 students
Spring 2008, Spring 2009, Spring 2010, Spring 2011

Socy 699- "Globalizing Theory"
4-7 students
Spring 2012, Fall 2013

b. Course and Curriculum Development

Developed Socy 498-, "Explaining Social Change," at Departmental request

Developed Socy 699-, "Globalizing Theory," as new course to launch new graduate specialty area

Developed Socy 203, "Sociological Theory," as new lecture course, guiding majors through classical theory by reading of original texts and extensive writing on texts

c. Teaching Innovations

- i. Software
- ii. Major Programs Established
- iii. Study Abroad Established
- iv. Instructional Workshops and Seminars

From 2004-2009, I ran the Departmental Work in Progress Seminar, a twice-monthly meeting in which students 'workshop' papers and proposals. This has included students from all parts of the department, well beyond those whose research I direct. In any given semester, 7-12 students were regularly involved. This seminar was singled out in the most recent External Review of the Department as especially useful and productive.

From 2009-2011, I ran the Departmental working group on Armed Conflict, Citizenship and the State, a twice-weekly meeting in which students 'workshop' papers and proposals. This has included students from all parts of the department, well beyond those whose research I direct. In any given semester, 4-7 students were regularly involved.

- v. Professional Programs Established
- vi. Other Teaching Innovations

d. Advising: Research Direction

- i. Undergraduate
Benjamin A. Waring, Spring 2000–Spring 2001. Primary advisor on Undergraduate Honor's Thesis, "Making Sense of Change at NASA: From Sputnik to the Augustine Commission of 1990," defended 2001. Graduated BA with Honors in Sociology, 2001. Having earned a JD at Penn, he is currently employed as a lawyer in DC working on space issues consistent with his Honors research.

ii. Master's

• Served as Chair

James Murphy, Spring 2000–Summer 2001. Substantial advising on manuscript, use of archival materials and methods for MA Thesis, “One Broad, Unbroken Beam of Light, Truth Pure, Dispassionate: Problematizations of Census Taking in the Turn of the Century United States,” defended 2001. Received MA in Sociology, 2001.

Alison M. Gibbons, Fall 2000–Spring 2001. Primary advisor on MA Thesis, “The Internet and Political Participation: Variations by Party Affiliation,” defended 2001. Graduated with MA in Sociology, 2001. Currently employed as research manager at Child Trends, Washington, DC.

Marcela Gonzalez, Spring 2002–2004. Primary advisor on MA Thesis, “Labor Policies in Argentina, 1983-1989: An Historical Institutionalist Approach.” Proposal defended: Spring 2003. Final defense Spring 2004.

Molly Clever, Spring 2008–2009. Primary advisor on 2nd year paper, “Just War in the New Wars: Linking the Structural Dynamics of Post-Cold War Conflicts with Logics of Justification.”

Sarah Wanenchak, Spring 2010–Spring 2011. Primary advisor on 2nd year paper, “The Revolution Will be Tweeted: Communications Technology and Political Dissidence in Iran.”

Tyler Crabb, Spring 2011–Spring 2012. Primary advisor on 2nd year paper, “Bolivarian (Social?) Revolution: Placing Venezuela in Comparative Perspective.”

• Served as Committee Member

Alvarez (2003), Andrist (2008), Clark (2008), Danza (2002), Ejiogu (2000), Fazio (2002), Kurashina (2000), Murphy (2001), Noble (2000), Reed (1998), Stach (1999), Tanyol (2010), Ying (2002).

iii. Doctoral

• Served as Chair

Elena Vinogradova, Fall 1999–2005. Primary advisor on Ph.D. Dissertation, “Organizational Responses to State Failure: Russian Firms and Their Attempts to Cope with a Strange New World,” proposal defended 2001. Final Defense March, 2005. Project supported by Milton Dean Havron Award, College of Behavioral and Social Sciences, University of Maryland (2001) and an NSF Dissertation Improvement Grant (2002—see above under Grants and Contracts). Now working at a contract research organization in DC, as Director of Public Policy Research.

Wendy Wiedenhoft, Fall 2000–Spring 2002. Substantial advice on manuscript, use of archival materials and historical methods for Ph.D. Dissertation, “The Politics of Consumption: A Comparative Study of the National Consumer’s League and the American Federation of Labor during the Progressive Era.” Final defense 2002. Associate Professor at John Carroll University, Cleveland, Ohio.

Elizabeth L. Malone, Fall 2003–2004. Primary advisor on Ph.D. Dissertation, “The Global Climate Change: Prospects for Resolution,” proposal defended Fall 2002. Final Defense October, 2004. Currently Staff Scientist IV, Joint Global Change Research Institute, University of Maryland at College Park.

Gwyn Weathers, Spring 2004. Co-advisor (with Patricio Korzeniewicz). Final Defense Spring 2004. Previously, Assistant Professor of Sociology, in Puerto Rico. Current position unknown.

Daniel Williams, Spring 2005–Fall 2011. Primary advisor on Ph.D. Dissertation, “State Power and the Construction of Difference: Nation, Ethnicity and Religion in Germany, 1990-2003.” Final Defense December 2011. Currently Visiting Assistant Professor at Macalaster College, St Paul, MN.

Emily S. Mann, Fall 2005–2009. Co-advisor (along with Dr. Laura Mamo) on Ph.D. Dissertation, “The Politics of Teenage Sexualities: Social Regulation, Citizenship and the U.S. State.” Final Defense December 2009. Previously, post-doctoral fellow, San Francisco State University. Currently, Visiting Assistant Professor, University of Nevada-Las Vegas.

Katarzyna (Kasia) Skuratowicz, Fall 2007–2010. Co-advisor (along with Dr. Lory Dance) on Ph.D. Dissertation, “Mobilization of Collective Identities: Critical Junctures, Social Policies and Civil Society Organizations in the Case of Arab Americans.” Proposal defended Spring 2008. Final Defense April 2010.

Mehmet Ergun, Spring 2009–present. Primary advisor on Ph.D. dissertation. Proposal Defended Spring, 2012.

Aleia Clark, Spring 2009–present. Primary advisor on Ph.D. dissertation, “Science and the State.” Proposal defended May 2011.

Michelle Smirnova, Fall 2009–Winter 2012. Primary advisor on Ph.D. dissertation, “The Politics of Russian Identity: Anekdoty and Identity Construction before and after the Collapse of the Soviet Union.” Final Defense December, 2012. Assistant Professor, University of Missouri, Kansas City.

Molly Clever, Spring 2009–present. Primary advisor on Ph.D. dissertation, “The More Things Stay the Same: Colonization, Race and the Fractured Sovereign State.” Proposal defense December, 2011. Currently Visiting Assistant Professor, Washington College, MD.

Tyler Crabb, Spring 2013-present. Primary advisor in Ph.D. dissertation, “Counterinsurgency as Theory and Practice.” Proposal in preparation.

• Served as Committee Member

Armstrong (2009), Atalay (2012), Chepp (exp. 2013), Corbin (2010), Dean (2012), Hatch (2009), Iskra (2007), Johnson (2009), Kelty (2005), Lepson (2012), Milligan (2010), A. Nelson (2012), Nguyen (2007), Patil (2006), Reed (2006), Smith (2006), Stepnisky (2006), Trainor (2004), Wanenchak (exp. 2013).

[underline indicates Kestnbaum served as Dean’s Representative as outside expert in his field]

e. Advising (Other than Research Direction)

i. Undergraduate

Typically, 1-2 in any given year.

ii. Graduate

Typically, 7-10 in any given year.

iii. Other advising and mentoring

From 2004-2009, I ran the Departmental Work in Progress Seminar, a twice-monthly meeting in which students ‘workshop’ papers and proposals. This has included students from all parts of the department, well beyond those whose research I direct. In any given semester, 7-12 students were regularly involved.

From 2009-2011, I ran the Departmental working group on Armed Conflict, Citizenship and the State, a twice-weekly meeting in which students ‘workshop’ papers and proposals. This has included students from all parts of the department, well beyond those whose research I direct. In any given semester, 4-7 students were regularly involved.

4. Service and Outreach

a. Editorships, Editorial Boards and Reviewing Activities

i. Editorships

Managing Editor, States and Social Structures Newsletter, published by the Social Science Research Council (SSRC) Committee on States and Social Structures. Co-chairs Theda Skocpol, Harvard University, and Peter B. Evans, University of California-Berkeley. 1987–1990.

ii. Editorial Boards

Editorial Board Member, Working Paper Series, Center for Research on Politics and Social Organization (CROPSO), Harvard University. Editor-in-chief, Theda Skocpol, Harvard University. 1988-1991.

Associate Editor, IT & Society, published online by the Stanford Institute for the Quantitative Study of Society (SIQSS), Stanford University. Edited by John P. Robinson, University of Maryland at College Park, and Norman Nie, Stanford University. 2002–2004

iii. Reviewing Activities for Journals and Books

-I have reviewed articles for the following journals:

American Journal of Sociology (AJS)

American Sociological Review (ASR)

Armed Forces and Society (AF&S)

Comparative Studies in Society and History (CSSH)

Social Forces (SF)

Social Politics (SP)

Social Science History (SSH)

Sociological Forum (SForum)

Sociological Theory (ST)

Studies in American Political Development (SAPD)

-I have reviewed book proposals and manuscripts for the following presses:

Cambridge University Press

Polity Press

Oxford University Press

iv. Reviewing Activities for Agencies

I have reviewed proposals for NSF Technology grants (SES) and individual proposals regarding the study of the military and armed conflict.

v. Other

b. Professional Service

i. Offices and committees memberships held in professional organizations

• American Sociological Association

Committee Member, Barrington Moore Award for Best Book published in Comparative and Historical Sociology, Section on Comparative and Historical Sociology, February-April 2011.

Organizer, Regular Sessions on Historical Sociology (3 panels), February/March 2008 for the 102nd Annual Meetings of the American Sociological Association, Boston, MA, August 2008.

Co-Organizer, Special Session on “Intersectional Approaches to Citizenship, States and Politics” (invited panel), Winter 2007 for meetings in New York, NY August 2007.

Co-Organizer, Political Sociology Section Session on “A Political Sociology of Terrorism?” (invited panel), Winter 2007 for meetings in New York, NY August 2007.

Chair-elect to Chair, Section on Peace, War and Social Conflict, 2002–2004.

Elected Council, Section on Peace, War and Social Conflict, 1998–2002.

Roundtable Co-Organizer, Section on Peace, War and Social Conflict, 1998–1999, 1999–2000.

Member of the Selection Committee of the Barrington Moore Prize for the Best Recent Article in Comparative and Historical Sociology, Section on Comparative and Historical Sociology, 1998–1999.

Chair, Nominations Committee, Section on Comparative and Historical Sociology, 1995–1996, 1996–1997.

Roundtable Co-Organizer, Section on Political Sociology, 1996–1997.

• Social Science History Association

Co-Organizer (with Colin Beck) of two panels on Historic and Historical Organized Violence, one emphasizing the state and war, the other groups and armed conflict, SSHA Annual meetings, March-November 2013.

Co-Network Representative and Co-Program Chair to Network Representative and Program Chair, States and Societies Network, 2001–2003.

Organizer, panel on “War, the State and Society in Historical Perspective” for the States and Societies Network, 2002. Designated a Presidential Session by the Program Committee.

ii. Other non-University committees

c. Campus Service

i. Departmental

• Graduate Area Comprehensive Examination Committees (doctoral qualifying exams)

Military Sociology — Fall 1996, Fall 1997, Fall 1998, Spring 2001, Fall 2001, Spring 2002, Fall 2002, Fall 2003 (chair), Fall 2004, Spring 2005, Fall 2005, Spring 2007, Fall 2008, Fall 2010, Fall 2011, Spring 2012, Fall 2013.

Comparative Sociology — Fall 1999, Spring 2000, Fall 2000, Spring 2001, Fall 2001, Spring 2002, Fall 2002, Fall 2003, Spring 2004, Fall 2004, Spring 2005, Fall 2005, Fall 2006 (chair), Spring 2007 (chair), Spring 2008 (chair), Spring 2009 (chair), Fall 2009 (chair), Fall 2010, Spring 2012 (chair).

Globalizing Theory — Spring 2013 (chair), Fall 2013 (chair)

Alternative Comprehensive Examinations [total=4] — Fall 2009 (Beadle), Fall 2010 (Ergun), Spring 2011 (Chepp, Buford)

• Departmental Standing Committees

Computer Committee, 1995–1998.

Human Subjects Review Committee, 1995–1998.

Undergraduate Committee, 1997–1998.

Policy Committee (elected representative of Assistant Professors), 1998–2000.

Awards Committee, 1998–2001.

Policy Committee (elected representative of Associate Professors), 2003–2005.

Graduate Committee, 2003–2005.

Chair, Awards Committee, 2005–2007.

Awards Committee, 2007–2008.

Graduate Committee, 2007–2009.

Includes special weekly meetings Fall 2007, late Spring 2008, Fall 2008 through Spring 2009 to discuss and propose plan for reform of the Graduate Program Policy Committee (elected representative of Associate Professors to fill remaining term), Spring 2008–2009.

Speaker's Committee, Spring 2010–Spring 2011.

Policy Committee (elected Representative of Associate Professors), 2010–2012.

Chair, Speaker's Committee, Fall 2013–

Graduate Committee, Fall 2013–

• Special Departmental Committees

Faculty Search Committee, Junior Hire in Social Psychology, Fall 2003.

Chair, Associate and Assistant Professor 'Fresh Ideas' Committee, for the purposes of reconsidering Departmental strategies with respect to senior hires, Spring 2004.

Ad Hoc Committee on the Graduate Program, 2005–2007.

Departmental Internal Review Committee, 2006–2007.

Faculty Search Committee, Hire in Military Sociology, Fall 2009.

Faculty Committee on Globalizing Theory, Spring 2010–Fall 2010.

ii. College

Representative to the College of Behavioral and Social Sciences PCC Committee, 2006–2008.

College of Behavioral and Social Sciences, Undergraduate Global Studies Residential and Minors Programs, planning committee for BSOS and for Departmental contributions, Spring 2010–Fall 2010.

iii. University

Nominated and hosted visit of Theda Skocpol, Victor S. Thomas Professor of Government and Sociology, Harvard University, as University Distinguished Visiting Lecturer, 1998.

Represented the Department of Sociology and taught undergraduate courses, University Honors Program, 1997–1999.

Representative and Liason with the University Libraries, 2005–2008.

University of Maryland, Thematic Semester on “War and the Representation of War.” Directed by Profs. Kent Cartwright (English) and Adele Seeff (Renaissance and Baroque Studies), supported by the Deans of the College of Arts and Humanities and the College of Behavioral and Social Sciences, 2008.

- Member of the Advisory and Planning Council of the “Semester on War and the Representation of War,” Summer 2008–Fall 2008.
- Member of the Sub-committee on Integrating Course Offerings and Encouraging Student Involvement, Summer 2008–Fall 2008.
- Organizer of Public Lecture and multiple course-based meetings of undergraduate students with Dr. Elizabeth Samet, Prof. of English, United States Military Academy at West Point, and author of the multiple award-winning book Soldier’s Heart: Reading Literature through Peace and War at West Point, November 2008.

Departmental Representative on START Center Search committee for first Full Professor Hire as part of START, Spring 2013.

iv. Special Administrative Assignments

v. Other

d. Consulting and External Engagements

- i. Paid Consultancies
- ii. Other Unpaid Services (to governmental agencies)

Core Working Group Member and Deputy, Secretary of Defense (USA) 2003 Summer Study on “The Military Officer in 2030,” Newport, RI, July 13-23, 2003. Summer Study conducted under the direction of Mr. Andrew W. Marshall, Office of Net Assessment

iii. Community Engagements

“Impact of War,” expert commentator and member of the pool of ‘idea generators’ for National Public Radio (NPR) ongoing feature, directed by Senior Editor Vicky O’Hara, commencing November, 2007.

From late 2007 to the present, I’ve fielded requests from NPR member stations regarding ideas for stories, ways to collect information on particular questions, and points of contact.

- iv. International Activities
- v. Corporate and Other Board Memberships

Trustee, the Sheridan School, Washington, DC, Fall 2012-

- vi. Entrepreneurial Activities
- vii. Other

e. Presentations and Media Activities

- i. Presentations
- ii. Media Activities

“How Mainstream Is the Military?” Featured Guest on National Public Radio (NPR) Talk of the Nation, Ray Suarez host, Tuesday, December 23, 1997.

“A Thousand Years: How Societies March to War,” Christian Science Monitor, Thursday, April 27, 2000, pp. 18–19.

Piece is based on extensive quotation from interviews with Meyer Kestnbaum and noted historian William H. McNeill. The piece is one of eight in the CSM feature series ‘A Thousand Years,’ examining major developments across the millennium.

“Impact of War,” expert commentator and member of the pool of ‘idea generators’ for National Public Radio (NPR) ongoing feature, directed by Senior Editor Vicky O’Hara, commencing November, 2007.

“Ending the Ban on Photographing Coffins of Former Military Personnel returning from Abroad,” WTOP News (Dimitri Sotis interviewer), Friday, February 27, 2009.

- iii. Other

5. Awards and Honors

a. Research Fellowships, Prizes and Awards

Ph.D. Written General Examination passed “With Distinction,” Department of Sociology, Harvard University, September 1988.

Graduate School of Arts and Sciences Merit Fellowship, Harvard University, awarded to the ten “most promising 3rd year Ph.D. candidates in Arts and Sciences,” 1990–1991.

Ph.D. Written and Oral Field Examination on “Organizational Perspectives in Political Sociology” passed “With Honors,” Department of Sociology, Harvard University, February 1991.

Competitive Grant for Travel and Research, Delegation of the European Community, Spring 1992.

Institut de Recherches Avancées / Graduate Research Institute of Columbia University (Paris, France) selectee, 1992–1993.

Krupp Foundation Fellowship in European Studies, Harvard University, Minda de Gunzburg Center for European Studies, for support of 12 months of archival research in France, 1992–1993.

b. Teaching Awards

Faculty Award for Teaching Excellence, University of Maryland at College Park, College of Behavioral and Social Sciences, 1998.

Morris Rosenberg Award for Graduate Mentorship, University of Maryland at College Park, Department of Sociology Graduate Forum, 2001.

Philip Merrill Presidential Scholars Program, Faculty Award for Undergraduate Mentorship, University of Maryland at College Park, Office of the Associate Provost for Academic Affairs and Dean of Undergraduate Studies, 2006.

Morris Rosenberg Award for Graduate Mentorship, University of Maryland at College Park, Department of Sociology Graduate Forum, 2007.

c. Service Awards

d. Other Special Recognition